Report

"Inauguration of the National Service Scheme in Raje Ramrao Mahavidyalaya, Jath"

Sustainable agriculture is a method of farming that is adapted to meet the needs of the present generation without harming the basic resources needed by the future generation. Sustainable farming is also called organic farming. This year, while the International Year of Nutritious Cereals is being celebrated around the world, there is excessive use of chemical fertilizers and pesticides in agriculture. If we want to create a developed farmer, it is necessary to use technology in agriculture along with sustainable agriculture. Apart from this, Sub-Divisional Agriculture Officer Mr. Manoj Vetal expressed his opinion that there is no alternative to agriculture. He was speaking as the chief guest in a special lecture on 'Sustainable Farming and Development Farmers' on the occasion of the inauguration of Raje Ramrao College's National Service Scheme. The principal of the college Prof. (Dr.) Suresh S. Patil was present as the President.

Speaking further, he said, while the International Year of Cereals is being celebrated, a month dedicated to one cereal is announced every month. August is the month of amaranth. Speaking on this occasion, he also said that the aim is that the maximum number of people should use cereals in their diet. Principal Prof. (Dr.) Suresh S. Patil in his presidential speech said, due to soil health, soil health methods, numerology and the use of new technology in agriculture, farmers are modernizing and new research is coming out of it. A good example of this is millet production at Madgyal in Jath Tehsil. With the strong support and guidance of the Agriculture Department, a record yield of 42 tonnes of millet has been obtained by the farmer's group of Madgyal in Jath Tehsil. Madgyal village has been selected under the government's "One Village One Van" scheme.

Welcome and introductory speech was delivered by program officer Prof. Pundalik Chaudhary. Coordinating Mr. Atul Tike then thanked expressed by program officer Mr. Tukaram Sannake. Mr. Prakash Mali, Mr. Rajendra Khadtare, Ms. Mehejbin Mujawar, Mr. Anil Lokhande, Mrs. Lata Karande, Mr. Tejas Gawli, Mr. Akshay Kamble, Mr. Dhananjay Waghmode as well as teachers from other departments of the college, non-teaching staff and students were present in large numbers.
