REPORT ON TREE PLANTATION PROGRAMME

Name of the College: Raje Ramrao Mahavidyalaya, Jath

Venue: College Campus Area

Organised by: NCC Department

Unit: 16 Mah BN NCC Sangli

Introduction

The NCC Department of our college successfully organized a 'Tree Plantation Programme' as part of its commitment towards environmental protection and social responsibility. The programme aimed to promote awareness about the importance of trees and encourage students to contribute actively to a greener and healthier environment.

Objectives of the Programme

To create awareness about environmental conservation.

To promote the importance of tree plantation.

To encourage NCC cadets to take responsibility towards nature.

To contribute to increasing green cover.

Programme Details

The programme was conducted on the college campus with the active participation of NCC cadets, NCC officers, and faculty members. A brief address was delivered By principal Prof.(Dr.) S. S. Patil highlighting the role of trees in maintaining ecological balance, reducing pollution, and conserving biodiversity.

Following the address, NCC cadets planted various saplings such as neem, banyan, peepal, and flowering plants. Proper guidance was given regarding planting techniques and post-plantation care to ensure healthy growth of the saplings.

Participation

A total of 37 NCC cadets actively participated in the programme along with NCC officers and teaching staff. The event was conducted in a disciplined and enthusiastic manner, reflecting the true spirit of NCC.

Outcome

Several saplings were planted within the campus.

Increased environmental awareness among students.

Developed a sense of responsibility and teamwork among cadets.

Contributed towards a cleaner and greener campus.

Conclusion

The Tree Plantation Programme was a great success and fulfilled its objectives effectively. The initiative reinforced the importance of protecting nature and inspired students to adopt eco-friendly practices in their daily lives. The NCC Department plans to conduct more such programmes in the future to promote sustainable development.
